Arts and Crafts Association of Meriden, CT 06451
(203) 235-5347

History:

The Arts & Crafts Association is a non-profit organization dedicated to the cultural enrichment of the community. Founded in 1907, it is one of the oldest visual arts organizations in Connecticut. In June of 1981, after a long search, the Association purchased a building at 53 Colony Street. This enables it to expand the regular monthly meeting and annual exhibit to a full schedule of classes, workshops, and other art related activities. Considerable time and effort have gone in to the renovation of the building, most of it by dedicated volunteers. Membership, tuition fees, and related fund raising events and private donations support the Arts & Crafts Association. Grants from the State and local Corporations have been giving for special projects.

Goals:

1. To further interest in Arts and Crafts in the Meriden area.
2. To promote fellowship and exchange of ideas among active artists, crafters, patrons and others (the general public) throughout Connecticut.
3. To encourage appreciation of Arts by means of educational programs, exhibits, workshops and lectures.
4. To encourage beginners in Arts and Crafts.
